Lt. Gov. Denny Heck issued the following statement on the one-month anniversary of Russia's unprovoked invasion of Ukraine:

"My office has heard from many Washingtonians who want to support Ukraine but aren't sure where to turn. That's why we've launched <http://ltgov.wa.gov/ukraine> as an easy, simple website for anyone who wants to help. You can save lives, no matter where in the world you are.

Putin's violent aggression against Ukrainian children and civilians continues unabated. Ukrainians are mounting an heroic resistance and are counting on Washingtonians for help. Please visit <http://ltgov.wa.gov/ukraine> and support the people of Ukraine in their urgent time of need."
